American Made: Luxurious Leather

Bradington-Young's fine leather upholstery is manufactured in North Carolina, by craftsmen whose skill and talent are apparent in the execution of this fine furniture. Their skillful artistry, along with high quality raw materials, provide the value which is inherent in every piece of the beautiful leather furniture shipped from this outstanding American company.

Bradington-Young started their company with four recliners and twenty-five fabrics. Today the company offers a complete line of fine leather upholstery. Although the largest portions of the company's sales are in leather upholstery, Bradington-Young offers an array of beautiful upholstery fabrics as well.

Accessories: Style Statement

Wouldn't it be nice to be able to redecorate your home, say, once every few months? But most of us don't have the time—or, let's admit it, the money—to do that. What we can do is make small changes that have big visual impact. Decorating with accessories such as lamps, vases, frames or ceramics is a simple, yet effective technique to give any room a quick face-lift. By creating small groupings of accessories you will add drama or personality to any space, no matter how small. Just remember that when creating small groupings, aim for variety and balance. Come and visit Lea Matthews and let our design professionals' help you get started on making your own personal style statement!
