Exceptional Home Accessories

For more than 40 years, Sarreid has been known as a source for exceptional home accessories and hand made occasional furniture. Sarreid specifically designs its high quality decorative home furnishings to be both original and well suited for today's interiors. They are able to create unique treasures for modern interiors by recruiting quality craftsmen from all over the world to execute their product designs, combining materials and adapting the time honored techniques of master craftsmen.

A World of Color

Stanley's Young America collection is now offering more stylish furniture in more fantastic colors than ever before. That means you can customize your child's room with not just a mix of styles, but with more painted color choices and wood stain options than ever. Color is a big part of what makes Young America so special, but it's not the only thing. They also offer highly specialized distressing techniques that adds individual character, warmth and personalization. Techniques range from light distressing and striping to heavily antiqued and dry brushed. Allow the staff at Lea Matthews Furniture and Interiors introduce you to the world of color and options for your child's space today!
